

Previously working with State Laws and its Regulations, provisions were made in the FTC Rules if a state law existed which was stronger than the rule the State law superseded the Federal Rule. This policy worked in the past why changed something that is working in our State.